VideoTelecon &

New York's Courtroom Connect (www.courtroomconnect.com) has merged with VideoTelecon Inc. (www.videotelecon.com), a Cherry Hill, N.J. company that provides videoconferencing for the legal industry.

Courtroom Connect has permanent internet networks in state and federal courthouses across the U.S. that provide internet access for legal professionals while in court. Users also can view trials remotely through its web-based video streaming service.

With the merger, Courtroom Connect can now add temporary or permanent videoconferencing service in a courthouse for witnesses who cannot attend trial. Law firms can also now purchase videoconferencing for their offices.
